

ALLIED ARMY MEETS FOE TERRIBLE BATTLE SUNDAY

The Advancing Force For the Relief of Pekin Routs the Chinese Strongly Entrenched Nine Miles North of Tien Tsin.

TWELVE HUNDRED ALLIES WERE SLAIN

Loss Was Greatest Among Russians and Japs—The Yellow Men Lost About 2,500 Killed—Decree Releasing the Envoys At Pekin.

Washington, August 6--[Special Telegram]—Admiral Remy cables the Navy department that the Chinese met the allied armies at Pei Tsang and a terrible battle ensued. Twelve hundred of the allies were slain, but the Chinese have fallen back. The battle began on Sunday morning. Russia and Japan lost the majority of the dead.

Confirmed From British Sources.

Washington, August 6--[Special Telegram]—The Navy department has received the following: "Che Foo, August 6--The British steamer Fame reports an engagement at Pei Tsang, Sunday morning from three to ten thirty o'clock. The allied loss was 1,200 killed and wounded, chiefly Russians and Japanese. The Chinese are retreating. Tausig

Also the following: "Che Foo, August 6---An unofficial report said to be reliable says that about sixteen thousand allies were heavily engaged at Pei Tsang at daylight on August 5. Remy"

Chinese Heavily Entrenched

The Fame is a high speed torpedo boat destroyer and is doubtless being used as a dispatch boat. Pei Tsang is about nine miles north of Tien Tsin.

The Chinese have been heavily entrenched there on both sides of the river.

Tausig's dispatch indicates that the Russians and Japanese were in the advance on Pekin.

Allied Forces Lost 1,200.

Che Foo, August 6---[Special Cablegram]--Word was received here this morning that the allied forces on the march to Pekin had encountered 16,000 Chinese under Weng Hei heavily entrenched at Pei Tsang, about nine miles north of Tien Tsin.

The celestials were completely routed and compelled to abandon their entrenchments and retreat north. Their loss is estimated at 2,500. The allied forces lost in killed and wounded 1,200, mostly Russians and Japanese.

Washington, Aug. 6--[Special Telegram]—The advance of the allies began last Friday and the first battle has been fought. It lasted seven and one half hours and resulted in a victory for the foreign troops, but at a cost of twelve hundred killed and wounded out of an army of sixteen thousand.

If the Chinese are going to contest every inch of ground between Tien Tsin and Pekin in this stubborn manner the allies will need a much larger army to force their way through.

The dispatch from Commander Tausig disproves the statements that the Russians are sulking at Tien Tsin. They and the Japanese suffered most.

Pei Tsang is the first station on the railway to Pekin. The best information here is that the Chinese aggregated twenty thousand.

Recent news was to the effect that this was the only Chinese army between Tien Tsin and a short distance out of Pekin.

The opinion of the military authorities here is that the allies will now pursue their way and press after the retreating Chinese.

Earl Li Says He Is Sick

London, Aug. 6--[Special Cablegram]—Shanghai dispatches say that Li Hong Chang has applied for a twenty days sick leave, although his effects are packed in preparation to leaving for Pekin. Li is reported to have said that he incurred the disfavor of Li Ping Heng because of his proforeign sympathies.

Kaiser Never Said So

New York, Aug. 6--[Special Telegram]—Ambassador White arrived on the Deutschland today on a leave of absence. He said Germany feels deeply the assassination of her minister in China. He denied that the Kaiser told the soldiers to give no quarter to the Chinese. He said those words were first ascribed to him by a French paper.

war department at Washington stating that the Second Infantry had been assigned to the Philippine division under General MacArthur. The Fifth and Eighth regiments will form a part of the same command. Upon the arrival of the troops in the Philippines it is understood that they will be assigned for duty in China. The officers are very active at Fort Thomas in the arrangements for proceeding to San Francisco.

MR. HAY WAITING FOR A REPLY

Alleged Imperial Decree Releasing Envoys at Pekin Credited.

Washington, Aug. 6--This capital is unable to verify the Paris Temps' cablegram from Shanghai concerning an alleged imperial decree, dated August 2, "authorizing foreign ministers to communicate without restriction with their governments, and ordering their departure for Tien Tsin under a good escort."

No official communication of this decree has reached the state department, though it has been eagerly, even anxiously awaited since Aug. 1, when Secretary Hay sent to the Chinese government a positive and emphatic demand, speaking for all the powers concerned, freedom of communication with the ministers in Pekin.

The state department is still waiting for the reply of the Chinese government to this demand, and upon the character of this reply hinges the issue of peace or war between the powers and China.

All the powers have taken like ground in this matter, namely, that until the treaty right of the ministers to perfect freedom of communication with their governments was granted and guarded by the Chinese government, the powers could hold no further negotiations with China.

Secretary Hay's demand was thus in the nature of an ultimatum, his final word for the American government and the disposition of officials is to credit the Temps' dispatch, and to believe that the Pekin government has at the last minute of its grace yielded to the demand of Secretary Hay.

FOUR PRISONERS SURPRISED IN ACT

Sheriff Frustrated Plot of Desperate and Notorious Prisoners—Picked Lock With Wire Key.

Milwaukee, Aug. 6--An attempted jail delivery, in which four prisoners at the county jail were implicated, was frustrated at 1 o'clock this morning by Sheriff Durner and his deputies. Following prisoners were prevented from making their escape:

"Lofly" Fitzgerald, alias William Harrison, charged with postoffice burglary. "Daddy" Flynn, alias Thomas Farrell, charged with postoffice burglary. Robert Lopatkin, charged with hotel robbery. Orin Hanson, charged with burglary.

About ten days ago a Chicago attorney and a woman visited Flynn when, it is believed, the woman slipped implements to Flynn with which he and his associates hoped to make their escape. Hanson was found out of his cell by the watchman and was asked how he had gotten into the corridor. To this he replied:

"Why anybody can break out of these cells. I picked the lot with a piece of wire. Anybody can do it. Dolan, who was recently sent up, often used to walk out of his cell at night when he did not care to stay in."

A search of the cell was made and a piece of twisted wire was found. The bolts of the cell also had been hampered with and did not work. Asked to unlock the cell with the wire Hanson readily consented and gave an illustration of the art of jail breaking.

The three prisoners were taken out of their cells and placed in other quarters this morning a thorough search will be made. The sheriff expects to find a complete set of jail breaking tools in the cells.

Flynn and Fitzgerald are the well known post office safe blowers who recently were captured after breaking jail. Lapintina was recently arrested in the Kirby house and had a bunch of skeleton keys on his person. Hanson is accused of being an old time burglar.

"ZEUS" OF BELOIT HAS PASSED AWAY

PROF. EMERSON, WITH THE COLLEGE FIFTY YEARS.

Called After the Greek Chief God—Family Traces Descend From William the Conqueror—His Continuous Labors the Chief Factor in the Life of the School.

Beloit, Wis., Aug. 6--Joseph Emerson, 79 years old, a famous scholar and for fifty-two years associated with Beloit college as professor of Greek, died late Saturday afternoon, of general debility.

Life of a Loved Man

Prof. Joseph Emerson was born in Norfolk, Conn., May 28, 1821. His father, the Rev. Ralph Emerson, traced his ancestry back through the Berkeley family to the times of William the Conqueror. The genealogical tree was complete in every detail, and it includes names prominent in the early history of the United States.

Prof. J. Emerson was graduated from Yale in 1841, and then pursued theological studies for two years at Andover. For four years he was a tutor at Yale under the administration of Presidents Day and Woolsey.

His Call to Beloit

His call to Beloit came in 1848. After a two days' trip overland from Milwaukee through constant rain. President A. L. Chapin, then a pastor at Milwaukee, arrived in Beloit with the drenched professor.

They found moulds and the walls and frame of a brick building three stories and a half high. This was the college. His sole colleague Professor Emerson discovered to be a classmate, Prof. J. J. Bushnell.

Wrote of His Deep Trust

Coming out from the first meeting with the hardy trustee, after a session of prayer, Professor Emerson wrote to his father:

"If I have any doubt whatever that I am right in accepting the trust laid upon me, it is because I feel afraid to stand among so many prayers."

His Marriage and Travels

He was married to Miss Mary C. North, Sept. 7, 1852 and after her death he married Miss Helen F. Brace in 1884. Besides the latter, Professor Emerson is mourned by one son, C. A. Emerson, and one daughter, Miss Clara Emerson.

In 1869 Professor Emerson went abroad, spending a year in travel in Europe, Egypt, and Palestine. With the exception of this absence Professor Emerson has been constantly a part of the life in Beloit and of the college for more than a half century.

As a Greek scholar his reputation is wide. It is doubtful if any other teacher has received from alumni the world over such a mass of letters telling of revering friendship.

With all his scholarly attainments he possessed business traits and through his influence large sums of money came to the college. The college library had its growth under Professor Emerson as librarian.

STATE FAIR FEATURES

Program and List Will Be Adopted at a Meeting of Board in Milwaukee Tomorrow.

Milwaukee, August 6--John M. True, secretary of the state board of agriculture, will be in the city tomorrow looking after and hastening the work of a battalion of laborers who are improving the state fair grounds and the board of management will meet the local advisory committee at the Hotel Pfister, Wednesday afternoon when it is expected that a program and list of special features will be adopted.

Some of the latter which the board have already decided upon are: A model cooking school conducted by Mrs. Armstrong of Chicago; the model dairy, which will be in charge of Prof. E. W. Farrington of the University of Wisconsin dairy department, and an exhibit and demonstration by the students of the short course in agriculture at the university.

It is also intended to have a monster meeting of the University of Wisconsin alumni on the grounds on one of the days of the fair.

"The premiums we are offering this year," said Secretary True in Madison yesterday, "amount to over $20,000, and we anticipate that the grade of exhibits that we will have in every department will excel that of any previous fair held in Wisconsin."

TELLER URGES A CALL OF CONGRESS

United States Senator From Colorado Says Chinese Situation Demands This Action.

Denver, Aug. 6--United States Senator Henry M. Teller today expressed his belief that congress should be called in special session to deal with the Chinese situation.

"The president," Senator Teller added, "is not justified in going further than to protect our official representatives in that country. When that is done our army must be withdrawn unless congress shall order otherwise. The president cannot declare war; that can only be done by an act of congress, and the president cannot legally carry on a war in China without such declaration."

NO RELIEF IS YET IN SIGHT

Hot Weather May Hang Over Janesville For Several Days.

SCORCHER ON SUNDAY

No Prostrations Reported In This Vicinity—Mercury Reached Up to 98.

EASTERN LIMIT OF HOT WAVE

Weather Forecast: Fair tonight and Tuesday, high temperature.

As the weather bureau forecasted on Saturday, the heat of yesterday reached the record mark for the year again and last night the crest of the hot wave was full upon Janesville. The weather prophet predicts continued heat today and probably tomorrow.

While the thermometer yesterday did not touch above 98 degrees, nor did it mark so high for so long a period as on Saturday, the man in the street probably complained of the heat more than he did on the previous day. He had cause, since from noon until after 4 o'clock the mercury was at 90 degrees or above and from 9 a. m. until 9 p. m. it was over 85 degrees. So Sunday's stretch was longer than Saturday's if not more intense.

No prostrations are reported in Janesville. The people kept to their houses and yards as much as possible, and avoided the terrific glare of the sun. In the evening there was quite a rush up the river, and the trolley cars were crowded.

No Relief in Sight

Prof. Bigelow shook his head as he scanned the weather map of the United States last night in Chicago. He said it augured continued heat. He had hoped that the great wave passing the Mississippi Valley would roll off across the lakes and find a burial in the Atlantic by way of the New England States. But unfortunately it seemed to be humping up in the Southern States. "If it gets there," said the professor, "it will be hard to get it out. It is likely to sit and sulk and send up reminders for quite a time." Evidently the professor believes that the chances for a hot August are rather good.

Eastern Limit of Hot Wave.

Pittsburg, with 92 degrees, seemed the eastern limit of the hot wave, while the Rocky Mountains had already found relief. Thunder storms occurred at some places in Newark and Iowa, but there is small chance for them here. The humidity yesterday was only .75 per cent, which is normal. It is dry heat this time, fair skies, and the same old southwestern winds.

Special dispatches indicate excessive or even record breaking heat in the Northwest in the great wheat belts of the Dakotas and Minnesota which has suffered this summer from drought.

Rains in South Dakota

At Huron, S. D., where for seven days the temperature had vibrated between 100 and 106 in the shade, relief came on Saturday night in a heavy thunderstorm. Two and a half inches of rain fell at Huron, and from two to five inches within a radius of fifty miles, amounting practically to cloudbursts at some points.

Pierre, S. D., reported all records broken. The average maximum for the week there was over 103 degrees, the temperature for five days being over 100 and the highest point reached 111 degrees.

Burlington, Iowa, sends word that its Sunday had been a scorcher. The mercury climbed to 104 degrees. This indicates that the mercury in the Mississippi Valley has not yet begun to ebb.

CIRCUS RIOTERS AT CASS LAKE, MINN.

Many Citizens Ask Gov. Lind for State Troops to Enforce Law and Order.

St. Paul, Aug. 6--The Duluth militia companies are under orders to go to Cass Lake, Minn., where rioters are reported to have taken possession of the town.

A circus exhibited here Thursday. A sheriff and deputy from Hubbard county had warrants for the arrest of crooks who were following the show, for alleged depredations at Park Rapids.

While trying to serve the warrants one of the deputies was beaten and papers and arms taken away. Later in the evening citizens tried to have the train held until they got warrants for the arrest of the gang. While so doing the railroad office was invaded by the gang and Sheriff Alexander brutally beaten and left for dead.

The miscreants were followed to Grand Rapids, where one of them was captured but while court was being held the court house was broken open and the prisoners were released by force of arms. Governor Lind was asked for aid to quell the disturbance.

ONE HUNDRED HERE VISIT MILWAUKEE

EXCURSION YESTERDAY ON THE NORTHWESTERN.

Five Hundred Delighted Excursionists Were On the Train—Train Master S. H. Brown and Other Well Known Railroad Men Looked After the Details—Schedule Time Made.

One hundred residents of Janesville spent yesterday in the city of Milwaukee. At eight o'clock yesterday morning a special train of fourteen coaches pulled out of Janesville over the Chicago & Northwestern road having aboard many from Beloit, Oregon and Evansville.

On reaching Port Atkinson, Jefferson and Waukesha many boarded the train so that by the time the Cream City was reached the passengers numbered five hundred.

The excursion was not one of those crowded uncomfortable ones where everybody gives a sigh of relief when their destination is reached. On the other hand it proved the most enjoyable one having pleasure involved in it from the very start.

The coaches were as good as any on the Northwestern road and there was plenty of room for all. No one went without a seat. Trainmaster S. H. Brown of Baraboo accompanied the train in and out of Milwaukee and at all times he was doing all in his power to add comfort to those entrusted in his charge.

Excursion Agent C. H. Tickham of Chicago, was also in attendance to see that all went well. Each of the stations was reached on scheduled time and at 10:30 o'clock the long train pulled into Milwaukee.

After a short stop the train pulled out for Whitefish Bay, making the trip in short order. At 7:30 o'clock the tired but happy excursionists left for home reaching Janesville at 10 o'clock.

The excursion was a decided success and no little credit is due to Conductor John Whitney of Lancaster and Al Malloy of Baraboo. Both of these gentlemen are old hands at the business and the able manner in which they handled the crowd won for them praise on all sides.

Other members of the crew in charge were: Frank Kelly, engineer, Baraboo; Charles Likes, fireman; John Seales, brakeman, Madison; John McDonald, brakeman, Madison; and Thomas Holly, brakeman, Madison.

TAKE RIVER PATH TO INDIAN FORD

Many Spots of Historic Note and Romantic Scenery—The "Devil's Oven" Among the Rocks.

From the head waters of the river Rock in the marsh lands of Kioricon to where it unites with the great Mississippi, there are many spots of historic note and romantic scenery. Moors and marshes, rocks and cliffs, dense woods and level fields all have helped to make the slightly shores of this great waterway famed in years ago.

When the red man held clear title to American soil his favorite haunts and hunting grounds were along the banks of what is now the river Rock, and it was here in the time of the Indian wars that he struggled hard to stem the tide of the white man's immigration. But very few people recognize the charms of rock and mysterious caves that are to be found within a mile or two of Edgerton.

In the ledged banks of the river between here and Indian Ford are numerous caves and crevices that the artists' brush might reproduce and perhaps, transform a bit of canvas to a worshipful scene of Nature's architectural designs.

The "Devil's Oven" from the river below is a panorama that the loiterer ever loves to look upon when strolling that way and it is less than a mile from Edgerton by the way the crow flies. About fifty feet up from the water's edge is an oven-shaped crevice in the limestone rock large enough to admit a person and extending back several feet. It is said that here his fantastic majesty used to come to bake his bread and enjoy a rest from word toils.

It is faced to the east with trees and shrubs and clinging vines and in the season of the honey suckle is the home of the humming bird. Either up or down the river from this point are numerous caves and rocks of peculiar shape to interest the student of Nature and help to pass a day of pleasure. People who are going out for a few hours' walk should take the river path to Indian Ford and learn of the beauty spots near at home.—Edgerton Reporter.

READY FOR LONG WAR.

United States Hurrying Supplies to China.

New York, Aug. 6.—Arrangements being made by the war and navy departments to facilitate the operations of the American forces in China, not only in the advance against Peking, but also for a winter campaign, indicate that the administration, while hoping that a condition of avowed war may be avoided, intends to be prepared for it, says a Washington special to the Herald.

In anticipation of the northern part of the Gulf of Chili freezing in November, Quartermaster General Ludington is making a strenuous effort to land at least six months' supplies at Taku.

At this moment Nagasaki is the base of operations for the troops operating in China, but this base must be transferred to Taku, which can be reached by land. Gen. Ludington is arranging for the transportation of 27,000 tons of fuel to Taku. Thousands of small campaign stoves have been sent to that point. Heavy winter clothing, doors for tents, arctic shoes, etc., have also gone. The transports will, of course, be withdrawn before the gulf freezes, and any additional supplies subsequently sent to the troops must go by Chefoo, which connects by means of a highway with Taku.

Brig.-Gen. J. F. Weston, commissary general of subsistence, is also preparing to dispatch six months' supplies to Taku.

SATURDAY NIGHT ON MILWAUKEE STREET

Tab Kept on the Number Passing a Given Spot Shows About 2,700 Every Hour.

Ask a person how many people pass a given point on West Milwaukee street on Saturday night in the course of an hour and see how near he would come to the right number. Very few people realize the amount of travel by pedestrians on Milwaukee and Main streets on a fine Saturday night. It is almost impossible to get up or down the street.

Count was kept on Saturday night at two different times, between 8 o'clock and 8:30 for a period of five minutes at a time, during the first five minutes 242 people passed and during the second 220, which if taken for a period of an hour would make in the neighborhood of twenty-seven hundred people that would pass a given point.

This seems like large figures for the number of people who pass up and down one side of a street in a place the size of Janesville but it would be close to the right number. A large number of them would probably pass more than once in the hour.

Janesville has long had a reputation with the traveling public of being a town where more people are on the streets walking around on nice summer evenings than in most any other city of its size in the west. Saturday night on Milwaukee street resembles State street in Chicago on Saturday afternoon only on a smaller scale.

VOTE ON AMENDMENTS

Changes That Are Proposed in State Constitution—Electors To Decide Question in November.

In addition to voting on state, legislative and county candidates November 6, next, the electors of Wisconsin will vote on four constitutional amendments. The first of these relates to good road improvement, the second to the issuance of passes to political candidates or political committees, the third to the regulation of banks in Wisconsin, and the last to the regulation of public schools.

The resolutions were adopted jointly by assembly and senate at the last legislature and before going into effect must be voted on by the electors of the state. Notice of the election has just been sent out by the secretary of state, and is now in the hands of the county clerk here who is now at work making arrangements to publish the coming election. The amendments to be voted on follow:

Joint Resolution No. 1—Proposing to amend section 10 of article 8 of the constitution of Wisconsin, relating to good roads.

Joint Resolution No. 2—Proposing an amendment to article XIII of the state of Wisconsin to prohibit the pass system.

Joint Resolution No. 3—Proposing an amendment to article II of the constitution of Wisconsin, giving the legislature power to pass a general banking law.

Joint Resolution No. 16—Proposing an amendment to section 1, of article 10, of the constitution of the state of Wisconsin relating to education.

JEWS TO SEEK NEW HOMES.

Many Thousands Leave Rumania for America.

Vienna, Aug. 6.—It is estimated that over 5,000 Jewish emigrants from Rumania have passed through Vienna during the last month on the way to Canada. A majority of them have been penniless, having nothing save the fare and tales of oppression endured in Rumania and with their misery plainly visible in their faces. All of them arouse much public sympathy here and the contributions from Christians as well as from Jews have been liberal. Last week over 2,000 arrived here, and on Saturday came 500 more, chiefly women and children, who had not even the price of fare beyond Vienna. The authorities here compelled them to return, loading them in a train and sending them to the Rumanian border, but the Rumanian authorities refused to readmit them into the country, and only after three days' delay and energetic action on the part of the Hungarian State department was the crossing of the border permitted. Meanwhile over 600 more had arrived at Buda-Pesth. They were held there while the Israelite council wired the Canadian authorities and received word that only emigrants possessing $50 would be admitted.

Bubonic Plague in London.
Washington, D. C., Aug. 6.—The marine hospital service has received a telegram from Past-Assistant Surgeon Thomas, saying that there have been four cases of plague and two deaths from plague in London. Diagnosis confirmed by bacteriological examination. He did not think there would be a further spread. Surgeon Thomas fails to give the origin of the cases and to say whether they were on shipboard or in the city itself. The authorities say the instructions already given to quarantine officers are ample, and they express confidence that the bubonic disease is not likely to reach this country. Quarantine officers, however, will be especially watchful.

Heart Stolen From Trunk.
Shenandoah, Pa., Aug. 6.—Shortly after midnight thieves entered the boarding-house of John Monger, at Brownsville, a suburb, and proceeded to George Rudnick's room, who was asleep at the time, and threw two trunks out of a second-story window. One of the trunks contained $50 and the other $225.
The noise of the falling trunks aroused Mr. Monger, who got up and went to the window, but being nobody around he went back to bed. This morning at 6 o'clock both trunks were found in the back yard broken open and the money gone.

Arrest Two Counterfeiters.
Springfield, Ill., Aug. 6.—Federal authorities think they have broken up a gang of counterfeiters. A man giving the name of Charles Elliott was held by United States Commissioner Browning of East St. Louis, where he was arrested with fifty-eight counterfeit half-dollars in his possession. He waived examination and was lodged in jail here, charged with manufacturing counterfeit money. Roy Baker, believed to be a confederate of Elliott, has been arrested in Kansas City.

Incarcerated at Fort Dodge.
Fort Dodge, Iowa, Aug. 6.—A well-formed man to burn all the barns in Fort Dodge seems to be in progress of execution here. The work of incendiaries is being well done and the town is greatly excited. Eight barns have been fired within the last twenty-four hours. All of them have been the property of prominent people, that of Congressman J. P. Dooliver being the first to be fired.

Sugar Importations Increase.
New York, Aug. 6.—Sugar importations at the port of New York for the first month of the fiscal year ending July 31 were $6,500,000. Assistant Appraiser Michael Nathan of the sugar division at the appraisers' stores, said last night:
"This shows an increase in the neighborhood of $2,000,000 over the corresponding month of the previous year."

Tobacco Growers Sue Warehousemen.
Louisville, Ky., Aug. 6.—Forty tobacco growers filed suits in the Circuit Court against various Kentucky tobacco warehousemen, alleging the warehousemen have evaded the recent State statute which forbids them to take ten pounds of tobacco from each hoghead for a sample. The plaintiffs ask a penalty of $100 in each case.

THE POOR FOREIGNER.

Warm Sympathy Felt For Him by American Free Traders.

A somewhat prominent advocate of free trade, in the course of a recent speech in behalf of his pet theory, spoke with scathing sarcasm of the argument that the foreigner pays the tariff under our protective system. Not that he attempted to deny it. Oh, no! He, with more frankness than is always found among his co-free traders, accepted that conclusively proved fact. But the vials of his wrath were poured out because the foreigner paid the tariff. Poor foreigner! Our American free traders are always more concerned over his burdens than over those of our own people. "Why should he pay the tariff?" asked his free trader champion. "He does not live in this country; he gets no benefits from our government; he is entitled to no protection from it and owes no allegiance to it. Why should we make him contribute toward the expenses of our government?"

"Speaking out in meeting" was not allowed, or it would have been suggested to this champion of foreigners that the transaction was a purely business one; that the foreign exporter pays the tariff which helps to support our government as the price of his entry into our market. It is a case of quid pro quo. We have something—viz, the best market in the world—which the foreigner desires. We set a price on a share of that market, the price being in the shape of a tariff which is but a fair price to the foreigner for what he gets, or otherwise he would not pay it, and which at the same time is only a just measure of protection to our own manufacturers and our own laborers, to whom our government owes its first duty.

World Not Mix.
The Kansas City convention attempted to square a circle when it tried to construct a sound money free silver platform and nominate a pair of free silver sound money candidates. The two things will not mix. One is right and the other is wrong, and no amount of word juggling, wool pulling, hedging or evasion can deceive the people. Those who sincerely believe in the free and unlimited coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1 without awaiting the aid or co-operation of any other nation on earth should vote for Bryan, for he is pledged to that very thing. All other citizens of the republic, no matter what their previous political affiliations may have been, should and must unite against that financial heresy, which, if adopted, would plunge the country into a state of business anarchy, such as has never been experienced by any people since the invention of coined money.

Twin Issues.
The Republican economic policy, the triumphant rehabilitation of protection, has worked so magnificently in its practical results that the voice of partisan criticism is dumb. The Dingley tariff and the tremendous figures of our home industry and our foreign commerce under it will serve in this election as a mighty bulwark of the gold standard. Protection and honest money are twin issues, logical complements the one of the other. United they make the Republican party invincible.—Boston Journal.

English Lord Pleads Guilty.
Sir Robert Peel, Bart., keeps on dragging through the mire the most honored name in England. He has just pleaded guilty to publishing a disgraceful libel on his brother-in-law, and has been foiled in a raddish attempt to play a sharp trick on his own child.—Exchange.

Rheumatism

Rheumatic pains are the cries of protest and distress from tortured muscles, aching joints and excited nerves. The blood has been poisoned by the accumulation of waste matter in the system, and can no longer supply the pure and health sustaining foodstuffs they require. The whole system feels the effect of this acid poison; and not until the blood has been purified and brought back to a healthy condition will the aches and pains cease.

Mrs. James Kell, of 707 Ninth street, N. E., Washington, D. C., writes as follows: "A few months ago I had an attack of Sciatic Rheumatism in its worst form. The pain was so intense that I became completely prostrated. The attack was an unusually severe one, and my condition was regarded as being very dangerous. I was attended by one of the ablest doctors in Washington, who is also a member of the faculty of a leading medical college here. He told me to continue his prescriptions and I would get well. After having it filled twelve times without receiving the slightest benefit, I decided to continue his treatment any longer. Having heard of S. S. S. (Swift's Specific) recommended for Rheumatism, I decided, almost in despair however, to give the medicine a trial, and after I had taken a few bottles I was able to hobble around on crutches, and very soon thereafter had no use for them at all. S. S. S. having cured me sound and well. All the distressing pains have left me, my appetite has returned, and I am happy to be again restored to perfect health."

SSS the great vegetable purifier and tonic, is the ideal remedy in all rheumatic troubles. There are no opiates or minerals in it to disturb the digestion and lead to ruinous habits.

We have prepared a special book on Rheumatism which every sufferer from this painful disease should read. It is the most complete and interesting book of the kind in existence. It will be sent free to any one desiring it. Write our physicians fully and freely about your case. We make no charge for medical advice.

Sneedville, Tenn., Aug. 6.—As a sequel to the election, two men were killed and two others mortally wounded. The killed: John Lamb, deputy sheriff; Telman Collins. The wounded: Wiley Brewer, Whitten Gibson. Brewer was elected justice of the peace and the difficulty arose over his election. Hancock county, where the killing took place, is a remote mountain county in east Tennessee.

Mob Wrecks a Postoffice.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Aug. 6.—An official telegram to the postoffice inspector here states that a mob entered the postoffice at Milledgeville, Ga., smashed the windows and doors, destroyed some of the contents of the building and threatened the life of the postmaster. It is further stated that the postmaster has become terror-stricken and fled and that no one is in charge of the office.

A NEW POLICE PLAN.

Janesville is to have a better police system.

This subject has been under debate for some time past, and that all the argument has been on the affirmative side and all the lame excuses on the negative have been well known.

Chief of Police Hogan, Chairman McLean of the common council police committee, and President McKee of the fire and police commission have been interviewed by the writer, and each has expressed an opinion in favor of the change.

"We are to have a better system," said Chief Hogan, in speaking of the needs of the city. "Just what it will be I cannot now say, but we propose to make a change for the better at once. It will be arranged as soon as possible."

"Somebody should be placed in charge of the lockup," said Chairman McLean, "and a better system inaugurated. I favor the plan."

"I will call a meeting of the commission in a few days," said President McKee. "The present conditions are not satisfactory, and a change will be made."

These three gentlemen practically have the management of the police force in hand, so the assurances thus given are authoritative. This is as it should be. The officers should recognize public sentiment, and that they do recognize it, is to their credit.

The only objection to the strengthening of the police department has been the cost, but it is a well known fact that a reorganization can be made by which the plan be carried out without cutting salaries, interfering with the present membership, or causing a noticeable increase in taxation.

It is understood that the plan contemplates the establishing of headquarters—probably in the city lockup—the installation of an inexpensive but sufficient call system, the uniforming of the men and the providing of a horse and wagon so that the police may be called at any time that they are wanted. That such a system is needed is not denied, and now that a more liberal policy of expenditures has been inaugurated by the council, the last objection has been removed.

The citizens of Janesville are to be congratulated on the fact that this change is promised. The Bower City has admittedly long been behind the times in this respect, and after the change is inaugurated people will say—as they now say of the fire alarm telegraph system—"how did we ever get along without it?" And the answer will be "How did we?" Let the good work go on, and without delay. There has been ample cause for complaint on the subject of police protection, but the creation as above outlined, of a sufficient force, managed on proper lines and under suitable regulations will do away with it all, and place this department on the high plane that marks the other departments of Janesville's city government.

Chief Hogan, Chairman McLean and President McKee are to be complimented on the stand taken in the matter of a police force. The city has been in the rut long enough, and there has been too much complaint because of a faulty, out-of-date system. While the work is being done, it should be thoroughly done. The force and equipment should be modern in all respects, and in keeping with Janesville's growth and importance.

The attention of the few papers that said that harmony was neither desirable nor possible when The Gazette started the harmony ball-rolling nearly two years ago, is called to the fact that at the Republican state convention to be held at Milwaukee day after tomorrow the nominations will all be made by acclamation. Isn't that harmony?

Milwaukee's growth, since the last census was taken, is phenomenal. The Cream City has passed all the other cities of its class. The present population is 235,315, a gain of 80,847, or 39.54 per cent.

Only two days more in which to get on the band wagon. The state convention will be held day after tomorrow.

WHAT THE EDITORS SAY.

Walworth County Is Independent.

Whitewater Register—The action of the Walworth county assembly in sending unrepresented delegations to the republican state convention, suits us exactly. In the first place it is in accordance with time honored usage. The stalwart old county has always been in the habit of selecting delegates who had good sense, and an honorable purpose to properly represent their constituency, and of sending them untrammelled and free to exercise their best judgment. In the second place the candidates whom the republicans of the county, with great unanimity, favored for the governorship has retired from the contest; and, as they have never trained for the peculiar athletic performance of "jumping on the loaded wagon," they did not propose to try it at this late period of their honorable political history. But if their backs and knees are still stiff there is no sickness in their spirit: they will do no whining or kicking, and if fawning must be the price of political thrills they will remain thrills to the end, and stalwart still though they may have to go barefooted to cast their last vote.

Renominate Mr. Whitehead

Beloit Free Press—The Twenty-second (Janesville) senatorial district convention will be held at Milton Junction on the 5th day of September. It is expected that Hon. John M. Whitehead will be renominated without opposition.

Mr. Pullen's Fitness

Beloit Free Press—It is announced that Mr. C. F. Pullen of Milwaukee has been selected to succeed Hon. J. B. Treat as chairman of the Republican state central committee. As Mr. Pullen has long been a staunch friend of Mr. La Follette his selection as chairman would seem to be fitting and consistent. Mr. Pullen was formerly a resident of Evansville, this county, but has been a resident of Milwaukee for several years where he has been engaged in the banking business.

Favors Caucus Law Plan.

The Watertown Times, (independent) approves of Mr. LaFollette's caucus law plan.

CRAYON PORTRAIT OF PRESIDENT M'KINLEY

Decorating the Hall to Be Used By Republican State Convention Next Wednesday.

Milwaukee, Aug. 6.—Under the supervision of Sergeant-at-Arms Harry S. Fuller, a corps of workmen spent today at the exhibition building getting the big hall in shape for the republican state convention which is to be held there Wednesday.

There will be palms lining the edge of the stage, with bunting draped all along the sides, while the most conspicuous feature on the platform will be a huge portrait in crayon of President William McKinley.

Chairman J. B. Treat has so far received a large number of delegates' credentials, though there are many still to come, and not until the last moment when the State Central committee meets tomorrow afternoon to act as a committee on credentials will the full number be received. The number of visitors is expected to be almost as large as that of the delegates themselves, for parties of republicans from many of the cities in the state come merely to look on and take part in the political gossip which is sure to accompany a gathering of this size.

All of the state officials, including Gov. Scofield will be here, and many who are active in republican circles in all parts of Wisconsin can be counted on to come.

Consequently in spite of the fact that the convention itself promises to have nothing resembling a surprise in store, as Mr. LaFollette's nomination and that of the remainder of the ticket has long since been accepted as a certainty, the gathering will nevertheless have no little interest attached to it owing to the number of party men that it will bring together.

NORMAL INSTITUTE OF ROCK COUNTY

GATHERING OF TEACHERS IN JANESVILLE TODAY.

Session Will Continue Three Weeks—Opening Attendance Was 83—But This Will Be Increased to 150 Before It Closes—To Make Up Questions For Fall Examination.

The Rock County Normal Institute for 1900 opened this morning at the High School building, and will continue three weeks.

The conductors are H. L. Terry, A. P. Hollis, Mary C. Holt and County Superintendents Ross and Throno.

A course of reading, geography, arithmetic, grammar, United States history, physiology, school management and pedagogy, elements of agriculture, library reading and school law, is given. President Albert Salisbury, will deliver a free lecture on the evening of August 15.

The institute opened this morning with an attendance of 83, which is expected to be increased to 150 before it closes. The opening attendance last year was 101 and closing 183.

The high school is an exceptionally favored place for holding the institute. On account of the numerous advantages offered by the building in the way of ventilation and other conveniences. The large library of the Rock County Teachers Reading Circle offer great advantages in the way of reference, the books being easy of access, while costing nothing for their use.

With all of these natural advantages there is no reason why this institute should not be the banner institute of the state. Last year only one outranked them, and with the prospects ahead for this year there is no reason why Janesville should not be first.

The questions for the fall examination of teachers will be made up during the institute and will be taken largely from the topics discussed during this meeting.

Board in private families has been secured for most of the teachers present at the rate of 50 cents per day and there is room for all those who expect to come at the same rate.

Superintendents Ross and Throno are endeavoring to make the convention one that all present can look back upon as one of pleasure and profit.

The meeting opened this morning at 10 o'clock. Every morning after today the exercises will commence at 8 o'clock.

The first of the season, sweet, home grown nutmeg melons at Dedrick Bros.

ONE MORE VICTIM FOR KOSHKONONG

THE BODY OF DU LETT HALL
DRAGGED FROM THE LAKE.

It is thought that under the influence of liquor he accidentally fell in and was drowned—was a well known character in these parts.

Milton Junction, Wis., Aug. 6.—Wednesday the waters of Koshkonong lake added another to their already long list of victims. Du Lett Hall, a man in the prime of life; a son of O'Connell Hall of Fort Atkinson, started from his camp near Stennet Pierce's Koshkonong lake, and was not seen again until dragged from the waters on Saturday evening.

On Saturday afternoon some campers in the vicinity of the drowned man's tent told Chas. Bump, proprietor of a small steamer known as the "Bum boat" and a near by camping neighbor of Hall's, that Hall was missing and that they thought "he had been drowned."

Inquiry disclosed the fact that he had last been seen on Wednesday by a farmer in the vicinity. From the young man's account it appears that Hall was at this time under the influence of intoxicants. Hall went to the boat landing, staggered into his boat and rowed out into the lake, presumably to attend set lines.

It is thought that in an endeavor to reach a set line he accidentally upset his boat, an ordinary flat bottomed one and was drowned.

Bump instituted a search for Hall and accompanied by companions set out for the place where the supposed victim's lines were set. The search was not long for upon arriving at their destination they beheld Hall's boat rocking on the waves, bottom upwards, held by the heavy anchor which was carried in it. Within a radius of a few yards from the scow were discovered a number of dead fishes floating upon the surface, likely taken from the set lines before the accident by the drowned man.

A further search and the body was found entangled in a mass of weeds at the bottom of the lake. The remains were dragged to the surface and found to be in a badly decomposed condition. The overturned scow was righted and the body placed therein and towed to the shore. Previously Stennet Pierce had telephoned to Fort Atkinson for Chauncey Hall, his father, and George Hall, a brother, who were on hand to direct as to the disposal of the body.

On account of the condition of the corpse an immediate burial was deemed advisable and Undertaker E. P. Frick of Milton Junction was accordingly summoned who made the body as presentable as possible under the circumstances. There were no funeral services and the body was consigned to the earth in the Rock river cemetery during Sunday night.

Du Lett Hall was born and reared within the vicinity of Rock River. In his earlier years his time was divided between life on his father's farm on the old River road, and hunting and fishing on the lake and river. Before he reached his majority, he became dissatisfied with the constraints placed upon him at home and with a companion of like tastes and habits he started out to make for himself a place in the world. They went west and engaged in railroading. Hall rose from a brakeman to a conductor on a western road, and seemed to be doing well. He married and had a comfortable home, and was succeeding in his chosen avocation. Through drink he lost his position and with that his friends. He came back to the old home and again engaged in fishing, the proceeds of which was spent in drunkenness. He was concerned in the Hall stabbing affray at Rock River a year or two ago, being the man who used the knife. A dispute arose between him and his brother George, on the ride home, after a day spent in the Edgerton saloons, and culminated in the stabbing affray mentioned above. On the recovery of the victim Du Lett Hall was released without prosecution, for the reason that no one had enough interest in the matter to give it concern. Shortly after this happening the brother of Du Lett moved his effects into the woods near Pierce's Point, and with a couple of boon companions, existed until the tragic climax happened which marked his labor's close.

25 FACTORY GIRLS OUT ON A STRIKE

Not Satisfied With the Prices Offered on New Work by the Janesville Clothing Co.

On account of a misunderstanding as to the price of new work to be done at the Janesville Clothing Co. twenty five of the girls quit work Saturday afternoon. The new work is a kind that the factory has not handled before and the price offered the girls was not satisfactory to them. A meeting of the hands was called to consider the matter and it was decided that they would not accept the new work at the prices offered by the factory. They were willing to go to work on the old work at the old prices but would not accept the new schedule. Mr. Cunningham thought the girls would all be back at work this afternoon at the prices offered.

Francis Downes.
Little Francis, the twenty month old son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Downes, passed peacefully away yesterday morning at his home, 6 South River street. He was taken sick at the tender age of three months and since that time has been a patient little sufferer. Funeral services will be held tomorrow morning 9 o'clock from the home and 9:30 from St. Patrick's church.

Dr. Loomis reached Rome at 1:37 p. m. today and he and Mr. Carr drove over to the old homestead. Tomorrow they will go to Mariborough, where Dr. Loomis will visit for a few days and then go on to Boston and other eastern cities—Rome (N. Y.) Sentinel.

Chicago, Aug. 6.—[Special Telegram]—Lloyd Smith, former manager of the Chicago Grain Elevator, a leading republican, surrendered today and furnished a fifteen thousand dollar bond to answer to six indictments of alleged illegal removal of grain from the elevator.

Mr. Gilmore left a short time ago to visit his brother, William Gilmore who was an ardent sportsman and a great hand for rifle shooting. His brother from this city, L. M. Gilmore is also much interested in rifle shooting and owns a fine rifle which he took with him on his visit. It is thought that it was during one of their shooting matches that the shot was fired that accidentally hit his brother killing him.

Mr. Eugene Pelton, Mr. Gilmore's son-in-law said they received word from their relatives at Hamilton saying William Gilmore died suddenly, but giving no particulars. He thinks there can be no doubt that the Gilmore mentioned is Mr. L. M. Gilmore of this city.

Mr. Gilmore of Hamilton, Ind., was instantly killed on August 4th by a bullet from his brother's rifle. The brothers aged 79 and 74 respectively, were shooting at a target at 200 yards range. William Gilmore had gone down to the target to adjust some matters, when his brother fired, the bullet entering his brain.

IS IT WARM ENOUGH FOR YOU?

TO WATER ARID LAND

WATERLESS WEST TO BE RECLAIMED
BY IRRIGATION.

Republican Platform Declares Itself
In Favor of National Legislation to That End—In Line With the Party's Homestead Law.

Senator Warren, before leaving Washington for his home in Wyoming, speaking of the work of the national Republican convention, said:

"The platform adopted by the convention conveys to the people of my state and of every western state and territory the most hopeful tidings given them for many years. They are in the declaration that, 'in further pursue of the constant policy of the Republican party to provide free homes on the public domain, we recommend adequate national legislation to reclaim the arid lands of the United States, reserving control of the distribution of water for irrigation to the respective states and territories.'

"The fact that the Republican party puts no idle words in its platform and redeems every promise it makes to the fullest degree is appreciated in the west, and with the positive declaration that the party is committed to reclamation of the arid lands of the country all doubts that this will be done, and done speedily, are removed.

"Had I had such a declaration to back me up at the close of the Fifty-fifth congress, when we attempted to secure an appropriation for the building of storage reservoirs in the west, success would have been assured. With such a declaration now as a plank in the platform of the Republican party success is in sight, and I confidently believe that before the Fifty-sixth congress closes it will provide means for the inauguration of a system of reclamation of our arid lands which will do as much for the waterless west as the adoption of the homestead law did for the middle west country.

"The Republican party has already taken the preliminary steps in the work of reclaiming the arid lands of the west, and what it has done is of such practical nature that a substantial foundation is already established upon which the work of reclamation can be continued and be made of lasting material benefit to the east.
The first definite action taken toward reclamation of arid lands by the government was secured by the Republican party in 1890 when, by the provisions of the river and harbor act, under a section which I had the honor to present, an appropriation of $5,000 was made for the examination of sites and a report upon the practicability and desirability of constructing reservoirs and hydraulic works necessary for the storage and utilization of water: to prevent floods and overflows, erosion of river banks and breaks of levees, and to re-enforce the flow of streams during drought and low water seasons, at least one site each in the states of Wyoming and Colorado."

"The most practical step in the direction of arid land reclamation was taken in the Fifty-fifth congress when,
by provisions of the agricultural appropriation bill, appropriations of $10,000 and $25,000 were provided to make a series of investigations by experts in practical irrigation. These investigations were placed in charge of Professor Elwood Mead of Wyoming, recognized as the leading authority on irrigation problems in America.
The present congress has increased the amount for this year's investigations under Professor Mead to $50,000, and the scope of his work has been enlarged to cover many new irrigation experiments and problems.

"In addition to these investigations, congress has encouraged and sustained by liberal appropriation the work of stream measurements and investigation of water resources of the country conducted by the United States geological survey, and the amount appropriated by the congress just closed for this work was $100,000, an increase of $50,000 over that of last year.
"The Republican party, as I have said, never makes a promise it does not fulfill, and I confidently anticipate that at a very early day the practical work of irrigation investigation under Professor Mead, the collection of data of water resources by the geological survey and the location and survey of storage reservoir sites in Wyoming and Colorado by Captain Chittenden will be followed by the erection by the government on the headwaters of our principal western rivers of reservoirs which will serve to reclaim millions of acres of land now arid and useless and transform them into productive farms.

The increase in value of land as soon as it is reclaimed and is insured a permanent water supply is enormous, and with the waters of our western rivers now running to waste fully utilized the growth that will come to the west will be almost beyond comprehension."

GROWTH OF SOLVENCY.

Facts Show the Benefits of Republican Administration.

During the last free trade administration the average number of railroads which were during that time in the hands of receivers was 171, the number of miles represented being 36, 383. Last year the number of roads in the hands of receivers had been reduced to 68, the number of miles represented being 9,041.

Since the return of economic sanity
to the people of the country, as evidenced by the election of President Mc-Kinley and the restoration of protection, the railroads have been having gala days. In the case of many roads the report has been constantly, "Traffic limited only by carrying capacity." That state of things cannot continue a great while without turning insolvent roads into solvent and prosperous ones.
And that is what has been going on ever since the American people decided to supply the American market with goods instead of turning over that business to foreigners. Let the good work go on.

INCOME AND OUTGO.

Protection Always Gives More of the Former Than the Latter.

In 1896, under Cleveland and free trade, the total amount of money in circulation in this country was about $1,500,000,000. Now, after three years of Dingley law protection, the amount of money in circulation exceeds $2,000, 000,000. And this increase is only a fractional part of our real gain.

During the last two years alone the balance of trade in our favor has been more than twice the value of the increase of the amount of money in circulation. The people of the country wanted "more money." Well, they've got it, and they know how to get more still and to keep on getting it. Under a protective tariff we have never failed,
as a nation, to make our income exceed our outgo, and we will keep on doing it and will add to the tremendous amount that we have already piled up, while at the same time we will, as in the past, go on having more of the comforts and luxuries of life than we have ever had before.

Surplus of Receipts.

The surplus of receipts over expenditures for the current fiscal year just ended amounted to $81,229,779. This was almost twice the estimate made by Secretary Gage last November. Receipts since then, from both customs and internal revenue, have been good,
and expenditures have been falling off.
The total receipts for the fiscal year
just ended were $593,477,347 and total expenditures $487,803,499.

Looks That Way.

From the way Tammany acted at the Kansas City convention it would seem that it was determined to make Bryan Democracy so ludicrous and its defeat so severe that the old party would never again be bothered with the Boy-Colonel-Orator of the Platte.

Infinitely Better.

It is better to know that wool is selling at 30 cents a pound in Boston and New York than to bother your head with a lot of rubbish about "imperialism," which is only another Democratic way of checking our export trade.

MODERN CHRONICLES

PARABLES OF OUR DEAR OLD UNCLE
SAMUEL.

Unsuccessful Attempts of a Chinese Apostle of Free Trade to Convert the American People to the Doctrine of Unrestricted Competition.

1. And it came to pass also in the halcyon days of McKinley, which by interpretation is the Son of Prosperity, that Ho Yow, a Celestial official, cast his garments about him and journeyed even unto Shawmut, which, translated into the vernacular, is Boston.

2. And while he tarried in the heart of the city he met certain business men and manufacturers, and when they were seated by fiddles and hundreds he opened his mouth and taught them
very much Chinese free trade wisdom.

3. And when he had finished all his parables there were gathered 12 baskets of fragments of words and sentences that nothing be lost.

4. And he pointed out our weak points in an exceedingly mild and gentlemanly way, because he did not wish to shed innocent blood.

5. And one of our weak points was that we would not allow millions of Chinese laborers to come among us and cut wages 50 per cent, while they send $200,000,000 or $300,000,000 from their smaller pay back to China each year.

6. And he continued his parable and said, Ye cannot expect other nations to be anxious to do business with you if you are unwilling to do business with them.

7. This little joke on a nation of 80, 000,000 with over $2,000,000,000 of annual foreign commerce showeth how exceeding keen unconscious humor really am, and especially when we ponder the marvelous verity that our foreign commerce art 40 times larger per capita than Ho's free trade China.

8. Cannot expect? Land of the dragon, but we have expected; yea, and we continue to expect, notwithstanding his Chinese wall boxes, and his Chinese wall empress, and even in the face of his heavy free trade Chinese wall export duty.

9. Albeit, Ho Yow wist not that under protection according to Dingley we are bound to do a business with other nations that shall yet more and more startle the whole world and rouse even exclusive and slumbering punk-wood Confucian China from her reverence for backslumberism and antipathy to progress.

10. And the humorous speaker also informed his audience that our home marketism was a fallacy, and that before expansion we must give up our home market, yea, verily, contract our home market and expansion follows.

11. Howbeit, this last joke defied competition and easily took the heavily frosted cake for the Flowery Kingdom possessed a well known contracted market, yet expanded not, but grew smaller and smaller as the years go by.

12. And when the parables were all spoken, some of them that listened said one to another: This gathering art a marked success; after which the celebrated back: Especially the humor.

13. Here the morning hour expired and the bill went over.

Conditions in Manila.

Speaking of conditions in Manila under American administration, the British consul in that city says: "Improvements are visible in every direction and already the town has quite a different appearance from last year. The work of draining the filthy town ditches and stagnant pools may possibly entail an epidemic, but the advantage to posterity is inestimable. There are, no doubt, at present golden opportunities for the employment of capital and talent in many local trades. The departments of the postoffice and telegraph, being now under American and British control, are admirably conducted."

The British vice consul at Hilo says:
"The United States forces have now successfully occupied the better part of the island. The end of this year augurs well for a happier future, and when once a peaceful rule is established, many important improvements will take place."

Headlines as Written.

Here are a couple of headlines seen in newspapers not long ago: "Killed
by Lightning—Woman and Mule Die Instantly." "Two Lives Go Out in a Storm—One a Cow." An Ohio paper printed this item: "There will be an ice cream supper given by Mrs. Susan Howard next Tuesday night, July 3, in the Christian church grove to assist in raising funds for the funeral expenses of her husband."
